Senior Pastor’s Message

Ladies and gentlemen, the story you are about to hear is true. Only the names have been changed to protect the innocent...

Dear friends:

During my employment as a staff member at a large church in Hartford, I was responsible for new member “recruitment” and reception. You could say that I served as a shepherd to the visiting sheep who seemed interested in sticking with the flock. It was wonderful work, except for the challenging fact that I served alongside a fellow – Ted – whose idea of victory was based on volume. In his mind, the more people that joined the church per semi-annual session the more pleased we should be with ourselves. Yikes.

I felt that the number of members didn’t matter as much as the nature of the miracle. In other words, a mere two or three (or four) gathered in God’s name was enough reason to send up praises. Surely, even a small assembly must be pleasing in God’s sight. Despite much conversation, I never managed to convince Ted that the headcount doesn’t ultimately count – that the size of any session is not an obvious measurement of its spiritual significance.

There are many meaningful events scheduled during the month of October as you will read in the pages of this present edition. Holy smokes, are we fortunate! From my pastoral perspective, though, the reception of new members on Sunday, October 10th deserves special attention. I don’t want to diminish any of the excellent efforts that are underway to offer opportunities for fellowship, community service, and spiritual enrichment. It’s all good. It’s all God. I do, however, want to lift up the blessed fact that four souls have wandered into our midst and become tethered to us². They’ve decided to enter into covenant relationship with South Congregational Church and to accept the costs and joys thereof. I want to glorify the name of Jesus for such gracious favor, especially in these difficult days when so many people in the world have lost faith and or left church. Holy smokes, are we fortunate!

If you are not able to attend worship on October 10th to celebrate their homecoming, I do hope you will celebrate in spirit and avail yourselves of the earliest opportunity to share a warm word of welcome with our new friends!

Meanwhile, be blessed...be a blessing.

“Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God. Anyone who does not love does not know God, because God is love.”

1 John 4:7-8

Pumpkins and Paperbacks: Sunday, October 10. 11 AM. You are invited to participate in a “You. Are. Loved.” pumpkin painting initiative. Roll up your sleeves, channel your inner artist and write the words “You. Are. Loved.” on a pumpkin. Pumpkins will then be displayed on the South Church lawn and also distributed throughout the East Harford community. Please join us as we celebrate and share the abundant and unconditional love that God continues to have for all of His children.

To further extend the hand of God’s generous work into the community, a goodwill donation will be welcomed at this pumpkin painting event. All proceeds will be used to purchase paperback books for the children attending Goodwin Elementary School.

Preregistration is required. A sign-up sheet is available in the Crossroads. Also, kindly let us know if you will be bringing your own pumpkin or if you would like us to purchase one for you.

Take a Prayer, Leave a Prayer. A simple wooden box, paper and a pen have been placed on the table in the Crossroads. All SCC members and friends are welcome to write down a prayer and slip it inside the private collection box. It is not necessary to leave your name or contact information, but please know that your personal request will be held in prayer by South Church staff. Also, while visiting the prayer station, please feel free to take a reassuring scripture card to carry with you on your way. A gentle reminder that God is ever with you.

Chalk It Up! The SCC Chalk Ministry is looking for YOU! We supply the chalk, the location of a member’s driveway to be “blessed” and you are on your way! Whether you are 3 or 103, please feel free to reach out to us regarding this exciting South Church initiative.

Please note that Sunday morning children’s lessons continue to be available on Facebook.

CEFE contact information: To sign up for an initiative, ministry or to simply ask a question, we can be reached at cefe@southucc.org or 860.568.5150. We look forward to hearing from you!

Yours in love, laughter and peace: Kelly and Lisa

Chicken BBQ – Thanks to Everyone

Thanks to your support of dinner purchases, and the generous food donations we received, we were able to contribute $961 in profit to our Faith Challenge. Bea and I would also like to thank the people who volunteered their time and energy to make this event happen. Although we had to adapt and change to a take-out only format, it was a fun evening just the same. It goes to show that when this faith community comes together, anything is possible.

Thanks again,
Bea & Felix

Coffee Hour will continue to be held every other Sunday outdoors, weather permitting. Please bring your own lawn chair. In the event of rain, refreshments will be served in Charrier Hall. We are still in need of a host for 10/24. The sign-up sheet is posted on the Church News bulletin board directly across from the library. You may also call or email Krista in the church office.
